The passage on Nebuchadnezzar in the book of Daniel sets a precedent for us to know the heart of Father concerning leaders of nations, even pagan nations. We can lean in to this precedent and announce the same judgment to take place over the economic early Kings and rulers who rule in the mountains of influence.

Vision of Nebuchadnezzar: Daniel 4:13 “In the visions I saw while lying in bed, I looked, and there before me was a holy one, a messenger,^[c] coming down from heaven. 14 He called in a loud voice: ‘Cut down the tree and trim off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches. 15 But let the stump and its roots, bound with iron and bronze, remain in the ground, in the grass of the field. ”Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth.16 Let his mind be changed from that of a man and let him be given the mind of an animal, till seven times^[d] pass by for him. Daniel 4:28 All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. 29 Twelve months later, as the king was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, 30 he said, “Is not this the great Babylon I have built as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory of my majesty?” 31 Even as the words were on his lips, a voice came from heaven, “This is what is decreed for you, King Nebuchadnezzar: Your royal authority has been taken from you. 32 You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like the ox. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over all kingdoms on earth and gives them to anyone he wishes.” 33 Immediately what had been said about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from people and ate grass like the ox. His body was drenched with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird. 34 At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity was restored. Then I praised the Most High; I honored and glorified him who lives forever.

Daniel 4:36 At the same time that my sanity was restored, my honor and splendor were returned to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne and became even greater than before. 37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, because everything he does is right and all his ways are just. And those who walk in pride he is able to humble.

Father we agree with your judgment upon Nebuchadnezzar and we declare this same judgment coming upon the proud of heart in congress, the proud senators, the proud of heart in federal government, the proud of heart in the white house, the proud of heart in the CIA, the FBI, the DOJ. The proud of heart in the courts of our nation and the governorships of our states.

Father we declare the same judgment coming up on the proud of heart in media, in education, in entertainment, in science, in religion, in business and economics. Let all be weighed in the balance and judged unto repentance for the sake of the Son and for the sake of His Kingdom.
